WHO WE ARE

We are an independent law firm providing legal services to Polish and foreign corporate clients, financial institutions and public administration bodies (state and local government) for more than 20 years now.

We specialize in in customs and international trade law.

We provide importers, producers, exporters, and investors with legal advice as they navigate the complex world of international trade and customs law.

Our legal services in the field of international trade are split between two main areas: international and Polish law and regulations.

Legal services in the area of customs law are addressed to entrepreneurs who carry out transactions on both domestic and international markets
